

I strongly support net neutrality back by Title 2 oversight of ISPs. Infringing on net neutrality would impact the freedoms every American is meant to have. It would not help the average American and it would make the world a very biased place. In that case, yes, fake news would prevail.